Holy Communion is celebrated in the confession and confidence that, as he says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but his true body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with him and with one another. Our Lord invites to his table those who trust his words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as he forgives and loves us, that they may show forth his death until he comes. Because those who eat and drink our Lord’s body and blood unworthily do so to their great harm and because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of this congregation and The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, and yet desire to receive the sacrament, are asked first to speak with the pastor.

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION	P. 203
INTROIT	Sing in unison Psalm 34:4-8; antiphon: v. 1

I will bless the LORD at | all times; *
his praise shall continually be | in my mouth.
I sought the LORD, and he | answered me *
and delivered me from | all my fears.
Those who look to him are | radiant, *
and their faces shall never | be ashamed.
This poor man cried, and the LORD | heard him *
and saved him out of all his | troubles.
The angel of the LORD encamps around those who | fear him, *
and de- | livers them.
Oh, taste and see that the | LORD is good! *
Blessèd is the man who takes ref- | uge in him!
Glory be to the Father and | to the Son *
and to the Holy | Spirit;
as it was in the be- | ginning, *
is now, and will be forever. | Amen.
I will bless the LORD at | all times; *
his praise shall continually be | in my mouth.
